Florian Beauvais joins LogPoint as Senior Sales Engineer in the South EMEA region

PARIS – October 8, 2019 – LogPoint, the Modern SIEM and UEBA company is announcing the appointment of Florian Beauvais as Senior Sales Engineer in the South EMEA region.

At LogPoint, Florian will join the LogPoint technical A-team, supporting pre-sales and executing PoC operations across the SEMEA region, including France, Spain, Italy, and other key European markets. He will be working closely with LogPoint certified partners in the region, assisting in architecting solutions, providing training, and direct support.

Florian has more than 15 years of experience from the IT industry, earning him strong marks in the network operations, architecture, and cybersecurity domains. Prior to joining LogPoint, Florian has held positions as Senior Sales Engineer at Watchguard Technologies, Sales Engineer at Sophos, and Network Security Architect at Arrow.

“The Cybersecurity domain is extremely interesting and challenging. Threats and technologies are evolving rapidly, and I’m excited to be at the forefront of developments with LogPoint, incorporating exciting technologies such as AI to protect organizations. I’m joining a great team and are looking forward to working together with customers and partners,” says Florian Beauvais.

LogPoint Modern SIEM and UEBA solutions provide the analytics and automation tools that enable customers to securely build, manage and effectively transform their businesses. The simple licensing model, based on nodes rather than data volume, provides True Predictive Pricing and drastically reduces the cost of deploying a SIEM solution, whether it is local or global, hosted on-premise or in the cloud.

LogPoint serves 1.000+ customers globally with the support of a robust global partner network, including more than 50 leading Cybersecurity providers and MSSP’s across the world. In France, partners include companies such as Groupe Novidy, Intrisec, Nomios, NTT Security and Openminded.

In 2018 Gartner, the leading independent technology research organization included LogPoint in the 2018 Magic Quadrant for Security Information and Event Management as the only European and only new entrant. Cybersecurity peers recognize the unique capabilities by ranking LogPoint with 4.5 out of 5 stars in Gartner Peer Insights reviews for SIEM.
