Logpoint wins IT Europa Channel Award for Vertical Market Solution of the Year

COPENHAGEN & LONDON, May 20, 2022 –Logpoint has been named the IT Europa Channel Awards winner for Vertical Market Solution of the Year. The 2022 IT Europa Channel Awards winners, announced at Channel Sec on May 19, 2022, were chosen among industry veterans for their ability to provide industry-leading solutions and understand customers' requirements.

"We're extremely honored to win the Vertical Market Solution of the Year Award because it's a testament to our ability to provide real value to our customers. We always strive to empower our partners and customers with class-leading technology to overcome the complex challenges in the cybersecurity space," says Tim Wallen, Logpoint Regional Director, UK&I.

“Organizations face growing data volumes, increased shortage of cybersecurity professionals and a highly hostile threat landscape. Logpoint allows organizations to make threat detection and response more comprehensive and efficient at a fair pricing model, which is the game-changer that many organizations need to stay protected.”

Logpoint Converged SIEM is a platform that combines SIEM, SOAR, UEBA, and security for business-critical applications such as SAP. Logpoint is the only SIEM vendor to integrate advanced security analytics, automated investigation, and response based on a high-quality data foundation, reducing time-to-value and increasing cybersecurity efficiency.
